
MNSCU CANCELS 6,000 LAYOFF NOTICES

The Minnesota State colleges and universities system is cancelling the termination of job orders for about 6000 employees, as they are certain that MnSCU will operate even after the Government Shutdown on July 1. This is because the State Budget Office has agreed to provide the services, the MnSCU needs to operate. But still the government has been unable to agree on the State Budget. Read the original article here: MnSCU rescinds 6,000 layoff notices

<https://blog.granted.com/>