

LAYOFFS SWEEPS THROUGH SCHOOL DISTRICTS

The recent budget has included significant cuts with regards to school districts. The school administrators say that these cuts would directly translate to the layoff of thousands of teaching staff. This move has been strictly criticized by the school authorities, who strongly believe that lawmakers should have kept a temporary one-cent sales tax in place for another year to avoid many of the school layoffs. Read the full article here: Layoffs sweeping through school districts

<https://blog.granted.com/>