

CARFAX VOTED BEST PLACE TO WORK IN WASHINGTON AND VIRGINIA

Summary: Carfax emphasizes a fun atmosphere for its employees working in several offices across the country and even into Vancouver, BC, Canada.

Carfax provides valuable tools for used car shopping. Vehicle owners and car shoppers can access a specific car's history to determine if the car is safe. The reports on vehicles record details such as flood damage, open safety recalls, rollback alerts, odometer readings, accidents, service, and more.

Excellence Award Winner Owens and Minor Has a Lot to Offer

Not only does Carfax provide great tools, they are a great place to work. They have been listed as one of the top places to work by Washingtonian Magazine for six years. They have also appeared on Virginia's list of "best places to work" several times. They keep a policy of "no jerks allowed" and "work hard, play hard." The company values a work life balance in order to keep their employees motivated.

The Best Places to Intern in 2016

Carfax makes their company a fun place to work by placing a shuffleboard in the kitchen, putting green by the elevator, having Free Lunch Fridays, spontaneous happy hours, parties, and generous time off. They also offer language classes through Rosetta Stone. There is no formal dress code to continue the relaxed atmosphere. The interview process is long but ensures the right people for the company get hired.

The Best Companies and Their Benefits

Some of the jobs listed currently at CarFax are in the categories of account management, administrative, business development, customer service, and information technology. The jobs can be found in Virginia, Minneapolis, Missouri, Washington D.C., Los Angeles, Vancouver, and remotely.

Photo: glassdoor.com