

WHAT TYPES OF MARKETING POSITIONS ARE AVAILABLE?

Summary: Find out what types of marketing positions are available for MBA graduates.

Question: I have six years of sales/marketing experience in the publishing industry, and I'm currently a full-time graduate business student concentrating in marketing and finance. I'm interested in joining a financial services company, but I don't know what types of marketing positions are available to new MBA graduates. Also, can you suggest some executive recruiters I should work with?

Answer: Marketing couldn't be more wide open right now in financial services. To explore opportunities, go to Granted.com's job database and use marketing, financial services, and New York as your criteria. For the best recruiters, go to our affiliate website EmploymentCrossing Most Influential Recruiters section and do a search of headhunters who specialize in financial-services marketing in the Northeast. Not only will you get their names and phone numbers, but their websites as well.
