

---

$800K BUDGET DEFICIT TO BE SAVED BY RARITAN TOWNSHIP

Layoff notices were issued Feb. 1 to three junior patrolmen and three employees in public works, naming March 17 and May 4 as their last days, respectively. The township expects to save $475,000 through the work force reduction, Pietrefesa said. Public works superintendent Dirk Struening said that cuts to the 22-person department, which is slated to lose two from the road department and one from the maintenance shop based on seniority, could make it tougher to complete capital road projects.

Read the full article here:

Six layoffs could help Raritan Township close \$800k budget deficit

<https://blog.granted.com/>