OBAMA'S AD ATTACKS ON ROMNEY'S JOBS RECORD

A new campaign video recently released on Monday by the Obama administration has raised a few eyebrows. The video in question first shows footage of Romney from his 2002 gubernatorial campaign making several claims about his ability to create new employment. It follows up by then stating that during the time frame Romney was governor, employment in Massachusetts fell to 47th place in terms of job creation and the number of manufacturing jobs decreased by almost 40,000.
