

INSTRUCTION MASSEUR AND MEDICAL LIFEGUARD. THE JOB DESCRIPTION.

The "masseur and healthcare lifeguard" is among the medical professions.

The field of activity involves all measures of "physical therapy", which include numerous approaches of massage and reflex zone therapy, manual lymphatic drainage, movement therapy, electrical, light and radiation therapy, heat and cold applications too as hydrotherapy with its medical baths, Kneipp water applications, inhalations and specific spa treatments. The "physical therapy" has its fixed place in the therapy plans and takes place on healthcare guidelines. The concentrate on the function of a "masseur and health-related bath attendant" may be the patient or individual. Consequently, quite specific needs are placed around the practitioner: p >

Sense of duty, helpfulness, empathy, motivation, intelligence and specialist qualifications.

In practically all specialist departments and clinics, overall health resorts, rehabilitation centers, massage and physiotherapy practices or within the med. The masseur and med. Lifeguard his sphere of activity. In addition to therapeutic function on sufferers to stop, treat or cure a disease, the places of overall health care and upkeep, wellness and fitness at the same time as the care of athletes are becoming a growing number of imperative. Accordingly, further exciting work opportunities arise through further training measures, e.g. As a trainer in sports clubs, health insurance coverage firms, rheumatism leagues, charities and adult education centers. A shortened coaching course to turn into a physiotherapist can also be probable.

The instruction.

The instruction lasts a total of two years and is divided into a 2-year school-based training with a state final examination plus a 6-month internship in hospitals, practices or health-related institutions. Soon after successfully completing the whole coaching course, the graduate receives permission to work with the professional title? Masseur und med. Lifeguards?. Classes take spot all day from Monday to Friday.

The lesson content.

Moreover /college-letter-of-intent-writing-service/ towards the regions of "physical therapy" in theory and practice currently described within the job description, the following additional subjects are taught:

Anatomy and physiology general and unique pathology, first help and bandage technology, hygiene, occupational, legal and political research, applied physics and biomechanics, prevention and rehabilitation, sociology, education and psychology, language and literature.

Conditions for registration.

Minimum age 16 years of secondary college qualification or an equivalent college education, well being qualification.

Application.

Course start: October 1st of each year Application date: at any time Please enclose together with the application for admission:

Curriculum vitae Two photographs School leaving certificate (certified copy) Copies of certificates about prior activities Birth certificate (copy) Health-related wellness certificate in regards to the suitability to exercise the profession, including the full vaccination status (not older than three months) Current police clearance certificate (not older than three months) Proof of a Internship inside a hospital / nursing <https://comartsci.msu.edu/execed> household or in a therapeutic facility.

Annex 6-8 has to be available in the most recent at the start out from the course.

Coaching charges *

School fee: 275 euros per month Admission fee: one hundred euros Exam charge: 50 euros Teaching components: approx. 200 euros * As of 1/2017, topic to change.

Speak to:

Massage school at Pius-Hospital Oldenburg Georgstraße 12, 26121 Oldenburg Headmistress: Petra Rosenfeld Telephone: 0441 229-1210 Fax: 0441 229-1215 E-Mail: massage.college.pius-hospital.todd.de.