
SONUS NETWORKS ANNOUNCES ADDITIONAL CUTS

Sonus Networks will cut an additional 60 jobs, or about 6% of its work force. The Westford, Massachusetts company, which makes Internet network hardware and software, has been shedding jobs in recent months as part of restructuring. The company cut 40 jobs, or 4% of its work force, in January. It previously cut 50 jobs in December. The company expects to complete the layoffs in Q1.
