
SAVEOLOGY TO ADD 250 IN SALES

Saveology.com, a consumer comparison-shopping website, is hiring 250 salespeople to work at its Fort Lauderdale, Florida HQ. Saveology also has locations in South Plainfield and Edison, New Jersey. The new employees, who will handle inbound sales calls, will start work next month. Spokesperson would not say how many jobs would be full time versus part time, but did say benefits would be available for at least some workers.
