EXELON CORPORATION NAMES CALVIN BUTLER, JR. AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Calvin Butler, Jr. has been named the new Senior Vice President of Human Resources at Exelon Corporation. One of the largest energy companies in the United States, Exelon Corporation is based in Chicago and serves the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic areas. Formed in 2000 from a merger of PECO Energy company and Unicom, Exelon's division ComEd services nearly 70% of Illinois's population, about 3.8 million customers, and PECO delivers natural gas to 486,000 customers in Philadelphia.

The Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative and Diversity Officer and President of Exelon Business Services Company, Ruth Ann Gillis, is excited about bringing Butler onto the team, "Calvin brings a wealth of business experience to the role and, importantly, expertise in understanding and addressing the needs of the business."

Butler isn't new to Exelon, however. He has served as senior vice president for ComEd in corporate affairs. Previous to being employed by Exelon he also functioned as senior vice president in external affairs with integrated communications provider RR Donnelley. Gillis believes Butler's experience is a plus, "This will be of vital importance as the human resources team continues to bring the client as well as the employee to its work processes."
