

TOP SALES EXEC BOLTS TIME INC. FOR RADIO, RAISING SPECTER OF TALENT DRAIN

Paul Caine, the chief revenue officer at Time Inc. as well as an exec VP and president-advertising, is leaving the company to become CEO at the radio syndicator Dial Global, effective April 5. A successor has not yet been identified. Time Inc. CEO Laura Lang is not staying on after the separation is completed later this year, leaving the company with a lame-duck chief executive until a successor can be installed.
Read the full article here:

Top Sales Exec Bolts Time Inc. for Radio, Raising Specter of Talent Drain

<https://blog.granted.com/>