

BILL NYE: AIMING TO CHANGE THE WORLD

Nye once came to meet his friends. At the parking lot, two young women approached Nye and wanted to take pictures with him before other college students would crowd around him. Mr Nye came to meet his friend at Iowa State University. You can see Mr.Nye on TV discussing about several disputes between the rising level of carbon dioxide and global warming. Nothing in the past life of Mr.Nye suggested that he might be a firebrand. He was born in Washington,D.C., studied mechanical engineering at Cornell, where he got familiar with a professor named Carl Sagan.
