
WAYLAND BAPTIST TO HOST CAREER EXPO

Plainview, Texas' Wayland Baptist University will hold its annual spring Career Expo from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Thursday in the Pete and Nelda Laney Student Activities Center. Nearly 40 school districts and businesses are scheduled to attend the expo, which is open to the public at no cost. Employers will recruit for full-time, professional jobs, most of which require a bachelor's degree. Some summer or part-time jobs will be offered. Potential job seekers should bring updated resumes and be prepared to interview on site.

<https://blog.granted.com/>