

---

3 STEPS HR CAN TAKE TO FIGHT THE FLU

The United States is seeing an increase in influenza cases. Human resource departments can do several things to help decrease the spread of influenza in the workplace. This article offers three key steps in this process. Encourage flu shots, and remind staff to always stay at home when they are ill. The author also suggests reviewing hand washing techniques and placing hand sanitizer dispensers in convenient locations throughout the office.

Read the full article here:

You can still fight the flu: 3 steps HR can take now

<https://blog.granted.com/>