

PREVENT WINTERTIME FALLS, SLIPS

Employees are eligible for workers' compensation benefits when an injury occurs in the course of employment. Generally, injuries sustained going to and coming from the workplace are not deemed to have occurred in the course of employment, but if your employee falls and is injured in your parking lot it's likely the employee is eligible for workers' compensation benefits regardless of who's responsible for snow removal.

Read the full article here:

Prevent Wintertime Slips, Falls

<https://blog.granted.com/>