

SETTLEMENTS ON SEXUAL HARASSMENTS

Burger King has paid $2.5 million to finally settle a suit first filed in 1988 after female employees were subjected to extensive sexual harassment including rape. New Pine Ridge Restaurant in Wisconsin settled for $41,000 after the EEOC sued on behalf of waitresses who had been groped by the cook. The ABC Cake Shop & Bakery in New Mexico will divide a $220,000 payment to at least 19 women who were subjected to inappropriate touching and comments, some of them underage at the time.

Read the full article here:

New sexual harassment settlements: From apology letters to misdemeanors

<https://blog.granted.com/>