NO IMMEDIATE EFFECTS EXPECTED DUE TO SOLIS RESIGNATION

U.S. Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis will resign on January 9. President Barack Obama did not name the successor and said that as an advocate, state legislator and secretary of Labor has been a champion for working families. Solis said that she has decided it after discussing it with family and also she wants to return to the places and people that she loves. Recent reports said that she will be working for Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Read the full article here:
