

SHRM, ACIP - ADVOCACY ON IMMIGRATION REFORM

There is a growing need of an improved and reformed immigration system in the United States. The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and its affiliate, the American Council on International Personnel (ACIP), are working towards reform that will benefit employers. An improved system will allow for pre-qualified U.S. employers to take advantage of an expedited system towards attracting high-skilled workers. For more details on the article Click Here Want to see which HR Management Jobs are available near you? Click here to see.

<https://blog.granted.com/>