

SENATE IMMIGRATION VOTE - EMPLOYERS TO STAY TUNED

While monitoring the situation, many employers have adopted a wait and see attitude after the Senate passed a major immigration reform bill since the House of Representatives will likely take on the same issue using its own approach after the July 4th holiday. In the event that a compromise bill is eventually approved, it could differ significantly from the Senate-approved version. For more details on the article Click Here

<https://blog.granted.com/>