
OHIO FUNDS PROJECTS TO CREATE 40 JOBS

Three Ohio projects will get $3 million in state funds for job creation. Dayton's Stratacache was awarded a $585,000 loan for the company's new corporate headquarters. Stratacache is digital distribution company, with 2,000 customers worldwide. The $1.9 million project is expected to create 15 positions and retain 14 jobs. The Franklin Yards rail project, which will create five jobs in the construction phase and 10 permanent positions after completion, will receive $1.6 million loan. Springboro's Whitehall is getting $900,000 toward the purchase machinery and equipment. Whitehall, also known as Klosterman Baking Company, will create 10 positions and retain 42 jobs.

<https://blog.granted.com/>