
CASCADE CUTS WORKFORCE 20%, FREEZES PAY

Truck components maker Cascade has cut 20% of its workforce. The company has also reduced work schedules, including limited plant shutdowns, at most of its operations; cut executive pay by 10%, and implemented pay and hiring freezes. Before the layoffs the Fairview, Oregon-based company had 2,400 employees.

<https://blog.granted.com/>