ATLANTA STARTUP CLOUD SHERPAS IS HIRING

Atlanta cloud computing startup Cloud Sherpas has raised $170,000, and will use the money to develop new products and hire staff. The company resells, integrates and custom develops Google Apps. Cloud Sherpas can help enterprise customers save about 70% over traditional messaging and collaboration software like Microsoft Exchange and Lotus Notes. The company expects 2009 revenues of between $1 million and $2 million.
