
NEW YORK HOSPITAL FREEZES HIRING

Albany Medical Center of Albany, New York, is eliminating 3% merit raises; implementing a hiring freeze for all but “mission critical” positions; eliminating 125 vacant positions; and reducing leave time by 10%. The hospital expects to lose $2.5 million in funding. Layoffs are not expected for now. Albany Med has about 7,000 employees. Albany Med also has postponed a $360 million expansion project.

<https://blog.granted.com/>