139 ANNISTON WORKERS TO BE LAID OFF AT GENERAL DYNAMICS

It's very saddening to know that 139 Anniston workers have been notified of layoffs by General Dynamics Land Systems. But then, you can't help the situation because there is a lack of work at the facility. Also, the Army has not taken any decision on buying more upgraded Strykers. Even if such a development take place later, the firm will find it hard to hire more employees.
