

RENAULT IS WARNING UNIONS OF FACTORY CLOSURES

The people who manage a state-owned car lot are hit hard because of the debt crisis, It is causing the Unions to have to resort to unethical tactics and adopt harsh measures because the French car makers are trying to cut costs which in turn costs people their jobs or wages. They claim the savings will give them "room for investment and development of its activities.?"

Read the full article here:

Renault warns unions of factory closures

<https://blog.granted.com/>