

COMPUWARE CUTTING COSTS, ANNOUNCES 160 LAYOFFS

Compuware's headquarters at Detroit has reported that the company plans to lay off 160 workers in Detroit and either close or lay off 16 offices in the world. Several executive-level workers at the firm's headquarters have lost their jobs out of the employed 2,000 persons just in its headquarters. But Compuware has not made any comments on whether it is actively seeking a buyer or not. Read the full article here: Compuware cutting costs, announces 160 layoffs Laid off?
