

WEST COVINA UNIFIED AVOIDS LAYOFFS THROUGH RETIREMENT INCENTIVES

This article tells about the West Covina Unified avoids layoffs through retirement incentives. The first settlers migrated from the Upland South, traveling by the Ohio River, and the region was affiliated with the southern agricultural economy and rural culture. Some settlers even owned slaves before the territory was organized and it was prohibited. Many areas developed an economy based on coal mining. Read the full article here: West Covina Unified avoids layoffs through retirement incentives Looking for Retirement jobs? Click here.

<https://blog.granted.com/>