
DISCOVER CARD WILL CUT 500 JOBS

The credit card no one accepts will cut 4% of its workforce. No, not American Express! Discover Financial Services, the fourth largest US credit card network (which is like being the third best-selling cola), will cut 500 jobs in May. The job cuts will take place at the company's headquarters in Riverwoods, Illinois. The Discover Card was originally introduced in 1985 by Sears, so you know it's classy.
