
ALLSTATE HIRING INSURANCE AGENTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Allstate

Northbrook, Illinois insurance giant Allstate will hire at least 81 agents in Pennsylvania, including 24 in the Pittsburgh area. The firm is expanding its workforce as it expands its car and truck insurance product line to include boats, all-terrain vehicles and motorcycles. Candidates need $50,000 in capital to open a new agency. I know a great way to get that money -- be in a car accident!
