CONSTRUCTION BOOMING AT FORT CARSON BUT SOME CONTRACTORS MAKE CUTS

The construction market may be booming in Fort Carson but smaller contractors are feeling the heat. KIRA LLC, a global contracting firm laid off over one hundred workers due to automatic budget cuts that happened this year. The Government reduced the Defense Department budget by over forty billion dollars and smaller contractors are forced to sack employees. Brian Mills, an experienced worker now depends on his wife's paycheck to make ends meet. For more details on the article Click Here Where can you find the most Construction Contractor jobs?
