

WHY NEWS MEDIA IS IN CHAOS

Print media is in chaos because of the digital age. Newspapers are downsized to only weekend editions on an experimental basis but has gone back to being published on a daily basis. The Wall Street Journal was a part of the Murdoch split and once purportedly going to shut down but was sustained in spite of the scandal. There are opposing views however, about the state of print media in regards to computer generated news. Most would say that the future of newspapers is dependent on the widespread use of computers, the iPad, smart phones and Google glasses.
