

---

LOCKHEED MARTIN CREATING MARYLAND 160 JOBS

Lockheed Martin Information Technology is growing its Woodlawn, Maryland facility, as part of a contract for the US Social Security Administration. The company has moved 150 employees into its new Woodlawn office, and will hire 160 more. The company is a unit of Bethesda's Lockheed Martin, and does IT work for the Social Security Administration.

<https://blog.granted.com/>