

SCHOOL JOBS - TOP 10 SCHOOL JOB OPPORTUNITIES

- 1) Principals: Every educational institution needs someone to run it. A principle commands huge respect and has numerous responsibilities concerning the schools. One however must also keep in mind that the principle is also answerable to the school board, parents and all those concerned for anything and everything. Being a principal is indeed an honour and perhaps also the best job a school has to offer.
- 2) Assistant Principals: The responsibilities of an assistant principal are somewhat similar to that of a principal. An assistant principal fills in the space of a principal in the latter's absence. This job opportunity is no less than that of a principal especially coz it's usually the assistant principals who get promoted to become the principal in the long run.
- 3) Foreign Language Teachers: The world is becoming a smaller place and the need to communicate with others is increasing by the day. There is a renewed interest in learning foreign languages like Spanish, German, etc. Almost every school now offers classes in a few foreign languages. This indeed is one of the most interesting education jobs.
- 4) English Teachers: The language English has truly emerged as the most popular global language. It is a common point of interaction for the various countries thus is the growing requirement for English teachers.
- 5) Science Teachers: Science has always been the most interesting and challenging subjects of study. It is not a surprise that the need for science teachers has only increased with time.
- 6) Maths Teachers: Gone are the days when students used to be afraid of the subject. New teaching techniques take you through the toughest of problems with an ease you had never seen before. You can consider this as one of the most popular teaching jobs today.
- 7) Commerce and Economics teachers: Students now do have the option of choosing their area of specialization from their very school lives. The growing capitalism paves the path for studies in this stream. Hence the requirement for its teachers.
- 8) Social Studies Teachers: Social studies have also emerged as a popular subject for study and there is a huge intake for social studies teachers all across the globe.
- 9) Elementary School teachers: You do not need to be a scholar to be an elementary school teacher. Basic knowledge is enough to handle kids in private school jobs.
- 10) Administrative jobs: There is also a huge requirement for working professionals in school office jobs. If administration is your cup of tea this is just the thing for you.
