NONNI'S FOODS TO CREATE 170 NORTH CAROLINA JOBS

Nonni's Foods will spend $27 million to build a commercial bakery in Yadkinville, North Carolina, after the state offered the firm a $300,000 One North Carolina Fund grant. Local governments will toss in a matching $300,000. The company must create 172 jobs in three years in order to collect the grant money. The average salary will be $30,000, higher than the county average of $26,000. Yadkinville has a population of 2,000. Illinois' Nonni's makes products such as biscotti, bagel & pita chips, flat breads and melba toast.
