OHIO RECOVERY CONSERVATION CORPS TO CREATE HUNDREDS OF YOUTH JOBS

The Ohio Department of Natural Resources has launched the Recovery Conservation Corps, which will team up with the Ohio Department of Job & Family Services and the state's one-stop employment centers to create jobs for young Ohioans aged 16-24. Hundreds of youths will be hired to work 752,000 man-hours building trails, boardwalks, and observation areas, and improving shorelines at Ohio lakes. Applicants can visit any Ohio one-stop employment center starting Monday.
