Hanesbrands will lay off 500 employees in corporate management and in distribution. Two hundred and fifty management employees will get notices this week; 200 of them based in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Hanesbrands will also lay off 40 employees from its Winston-Salem distribution center, which will shutter in March 2010. The remaining 200 workers will be laid off at that time. The company will also terminate its contract with a third-party distribution center in Jacksonville, Florida, affecting 10 Hanesbrands employees. Employees affected by the layoffs will receive severance and outplacement.
